

SURREY CENTRE FOR LAW AND PHILOSOPHY

Workshop "Bernard Williams:
From Responsibility to Law and Jurisprudence".

Organisers: Daniel Peixoto Murata and Veronica Rodriguez-Blanco

Bernard Williams:

The workshop will concentrate on Bernard Williams' practical philosophy to shed light on law and legal philosophy.

- Venue: Toulson Law Library, University of Surrey, A/B Building, Stag Hill Campus, Guildford
- Date: April 18th and 19th, 2023
- Everyone is welcome! The event will be hybrid, but we encourage in-person attendance.
- Please register via the Eventbrite link below:
- <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/bernard-williams-from-responsibility-to-law-and-jurisprudence-tickets-549182147587>

Programme

April 18th

Responsibility, Regret, and the Law

9.00am-10am: Ulrike Heuer (UCL)

‘The idea of the voluntary is essentially superficial’: Bernard Williams on Responsibility and Political Freedom

10.00am-11.00am: Veronica Rodriguez-Blanco (Surrey)

The Politics of Civic Maturity v the Politics of Justice: Reflecting on Bernard Williams’ Separation Thesis

11.30 am-12.30 pm: Gerald Lang (Leeds)

Internal Reasons and the Proleptic Nature of Blame

12.30 pm-13.30pm: David Owen (University of Southampton)

Moral Reminders, Political Luck, and the Violent Foundation of Law - Reading The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance with Bernard Williams.

Programme

April 18th

Responsibility, Regret, and the Law

14.30.pm-15.30pm: Benjamin Zipursky (Fordham)

Moral Theory, Human Agency, and the Common Law of Torts: An Essay in Honor of Bernard Williams

15.30 pm-16.30 pm: Emily Kidd White (York)

Shame and Necessity in Legal Philosophy

16.45pm-17.45pm: Iris van Domselaar (Amsterdam) *Participation TBC

Moral remainders within legal practice: whose responsibility?

17.45 pm-18.45 pm: Christopher Kutz (UC Berkeley) *Participation TBC

Regret, responsibility and the demands of justice

Programme

April 19th

Williams on the Methodology of Philosophy and Jurisprudence

9.00am-10am: Matthieu Queloz (Oxford)

Law as a Crucible for Concepts

10.00am-11.00am: Daniel Peixoto Murata (Surrey/Brazil)

Practical reasoning as interpretation: Williamsian remarks on Dworkin's methodology

11.30am-12.30pm: Damian Cueni (Oxford)

The Idea of Humanistic Middle-Range Theories

12.30 pm-13.30pm: Ronaldo Porto Macedo Jr (USP, Brazil)

An unusual but successful philosophical marriage: Nietzsche and Wittgenstein

Programme

April 19th

Williams on the Methodology of Philosophy and Jurisprudence

14.30.pm-15.30pm: Christopher Tollefsen (US Carolina) *Online Guest

Law and Lawfulness: Genealogy, Jurisprudence and the Thought of Bernard Williams

15.30 pm-16.30 pm: Stephen Bero (Surrey) *Online Guest

Law and Lawfulness

16.45 pm-17.45 pm: Emmanuel Voyiakis (LSE) *Online Guest

The contrast between ordinary and professional morality